Propane Flare off, Downtown, Lebanon, NH

The Lebanon Fire Department is issuing an advisory to inform the public that on Friday, February 24, 2012 between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Irving Propane will be performing some flaring of propane that will occur in the parking lot of KLEEN Laundry on Foundry Street in Downtown Lebanon. This is a normal operation used when emptying commercial propane installations. Although the operation will produce a visible flame, the operation will be performed with safety parameters to keep the public safe. Some residents or motorists on Water Street and Dulac Street may observe visible flame. This is not an emergency and the Lebanon Fire Department will be monitoring the operation throughout the day. If you have any questions or concerns please contact the Lebanon Fire Department at 448-8810, or Irving Propane at 298-7934.
